

FROM THE EDITOR'S CHAIR

"A man cannot make him laugh;—but that's no marvel, he drinks no wine."

II Henry IV : Shakespeare.

THE A.G.M.

By the time these notes are in print all member Circles and individual members of the National Association should have received the agenda for the annual general meeting, which takes place at Conway Hall, Red Lion Square, Holborn, on Sunday, October 22nd, at 1.30 p.m. (Incidentally, if you are a paid-up member or Circle and have not received a copy, please write to the membership secretary, Mrs. L. Lucas, at Molburn House, Lone Pine Drive, Ferndown, Wimborne, Dorset, for one.) It promises to be an interesting meeting, with plenty to think and talk about, and no doubt Circles will be taking the opportunity to discuss the 14 or 15 motions which have been tabled both by Circles and by individuals, and will instruct their delegates how to vote. Such representatives should be careful to obtain a letter of accreditation from their Circle chairman or secretary which should be handed in before the meeting as evidence of their bona fides. Individual members should wear their badge. It will be a "tight" A.G.M. in two ways (if that's the word we want!) Firstly, the accommodation is likely to be strained to the limit, another hall having proved unobtainable, and secondly we are likely to be very much up against the clock, with so many important resolutions to be debated in so short a time. But no doubt we shall win through!